

October 2021 NEWSLETTER

What beautiful fall weather we have been enjoying, and it looks like it might continue for awhile! It's been a great summer with some very good fishing and many good times.

Fishing Derby was a great success! Winners were as follows: Biggest fish-1st place winner was Laura Coen (2.8#), 2nd place winner was Judy Banner (2.3#). Total weight of 3 combined-1st place winner was Ron Sweet (5.9#), 2nd place winner was Mark Wentz (5.8#). Biggest walleye-Lori Shroyer (0.6#). Thanks to Pat Thomas, Cathy Potts and Gayle Walters for helping with the event. Also, great fish fry thanks to Steve, Linda, Gary Sweet, Gary Miller and all others who helped.

This Saturday, October 2 there is a "Costumes and Cocktails" party at the Clubhouse. Event starts at 5pm with a potluck with a costume contest to follow. This is the last bash of the season so come and enjoy hanging out!

The Clubhouse keeps looking better and better as renovations near completion. Thanks to everyone who contributed to this project! It looks amazing!

Sprinklers, grass seed and a new fence have been added to the lawn south of the Clubhouse. Joe and Yogi put in hours and hours of time on this project and it looks great! Thanks guys!

Check out the Club's new website: Password is F*shing_425. Cindy Kamigaki has done a wonderful job, it looks great and is easy to navigate with lots of great information. Thanks Cindy!

If you own a trailer and plan to make changes to your lot or trailer NOW is the time to submit a plan to the Board so it can be approved over the winter. Depending on the changes, it could take several months to get this approved.

FINAL MEETING OF THE YEAR-Friday, October 1 at 7:15. Potluck at 6:30 so please bring a dish to share, your own table service and beverage.

BURN PILE: Please note that only limbs and grass are to be put into the burn pile. Absolutely NO furniture or construction materials!!
